“KIT KAMP”

...sewing kits or bags for

UMCOR

United Methodist
Committee on Relief

Camp Magruder
October 26-29, 2017

UMCOR “Kit Kamp” offers the opportunity for fellowship and fun, while sewing items for layette kits and school bags that are distributed by UMCOR. Many churches and individuals participate in this mission project, which provides emergency assistance when disaster strikes.

“When the earth rocks,
UMCOR rolls!”

UMCOR “Kit Kamp” is for adults (over 18) or teenagers accompanied by an adult. The cost of the camp includes lodging and all meals for $199.

In addition to sewing time, campers will have the opportunity to participate in daily devotions and spiritual reflection, as well as evening campfires (weather permitting!)

Knitters are also welcome, as are non-sewers.

Camp Magruder is located on the Oregon Coast just north of Tillamook. The camp offers coastal walks and a labyrinth for quiet meditation. There is also a fresh water lake with a wetland trail at the northern end.

Lodging will be in comfortable, heated lodge with bathrooms. Meals will be served family style in the camp dining room, and dietary restrictions can be accommodated with advance notice.

Campers are asked to bring

- their own sewing machine
- hand sewing supplies
- 4 yards of fabric

Fabric should be suitable for baby gowns (cotton flannel) or school bags (sturdy materials such as denim or corduroy.)

Patterns will be provided. Extra fabric is welcome.
